MEMPHIS SALOONS ARE OPEN AGAIN

FEDERAL COURT WILL NOT INTERFERE IN TENNESSEE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

STATE HAS AMPLE POWER

Tennessee Must Enforce Her Own Laws—114 Saloons Opened Following the Order.

Memphis, Tenn.—Declining to assume jurisdiction and upholding the principle of "states' rights," Federal Judge John E. McCall ordered dissolved a temporary injunction restraining the continuance in business of 114 saloon keepers of Memphis.

Notwithstanding the declaration of the Law Enforcement League of Memphis, who, through fifteen of its members, appeared as complainants, that their appeals to state and local authorities for redress had been unheeded, Judge McCall held that prosecution through grand jury indictments was the proper recourse and was still open.

In answer to the allegation that the constituted authorities of the state were not in sympathy with the prohibition laws as enacted and had refused to act on information furnished, he cited impeachment proceedings as a method through which their removal from office might be accomplished.

Comparatively the opinion of Judge McCall was brief. It denied that the plaintiffs had established the fact that their constitutional rights, within the meaning of the fourteenth amendment of the United States constitution, on which he litigation had turned, had been violated and denoted that without this fact having been fully proved, controversies between citizens of a state properly belonged in the state courts. Further, it is held that if the court had jurisdiction the complainants are not entitled to relief in a court of equity. If jurisdiction was taken in the present issue, it is pointed out the Federal court might be appealed to to enforce any and all of the criminal laws of a state which would be in direct contravention to the United States Constitution.

"Taking every allegation of the bill to be true," the opinion continues, "in substance this court is asked to enforce the laws of Tennessee between citizens of the state, notwithstanding that article 4 of section 4 of the constitution of the United States guarantees to every state a republican form of government."

Immediately following the signing of the formal order dissolving the injunction, doors which have remained closed six days were re-opened, business was resumed and Memphis was as "wet" as ever.

NEGRO VOTE ELIMINATED.

Carolina "Lily Whites" Declare Negro Voter is a Dead Load.

Columbia, S. C.—The "Lily White" Republican convention called by John G. Capers, national committeeman from this state, met and formed a party organization, the prime object of which is to eliminate the negro from the councils of the party and build up an opposition which will have some influence in elections. The convention decided not to put out a ticket this year, but to nominate candidates for congress in all seven South Carolina districts in 1912.

Captain Capers stated that, while the meeting was not called at the suggestion of the President, yet it was not hostile to the administration. Its object, as he explained it, was to cast out the shiftless negroes who failed to qualify for the franchise, whom he described as a "dead load on the Republican party in the South."

May Abandon New Orleans Mint.

New Orleans.—Following an order made known here from the director of the mint at Washington, is the effect that all gold bullion in the New Orleans mint should be shipped to the Philadelphia mint, more than $1,200,000 in bullion was transferred last week. Additional shipments of more than $2,000,000 will be required to complete the transfer. George E. Roberts, director of the mint, said the New Orleans mint would be abandoned for the present.

Railroads Yield More Than Farms.

Chicago.—That the railroads get a better return on their investment than the farmer, despite the latter's much-talked-of ability to buy automobiles, was the position taken at the rate hearing here, when the shippers, who oppose proposed advances in freight tariffs, put H. C. Wallace of Des Moines on the stand as their first witness.

Mr. Wallace is a farmer and editor, and was elected president of the National Conservation Congress at St. Paul recently.

Foraker Quits Ohio Campaign.

Cleveland, Ohio.—Declining to accede to an alleged request of the Republican state committee to "modify" his speeches, former Senator Joseph Benson Foraker has withdrawn from participation in the Ohio state campaign and has cancelled all his speaking engagements. The senator made plain his opposition to the "new nationalism" described by Theodore Roosevelt, describing it as "treason." This brought on heated replies and the controversy had taken first place in the state campaign.

SHIPPERS FINISH EVIDENCE.

Governor Stubbs of Kansas Strenuously Opposes Increase in the Freight Rates.

Chicago.—Presentation of evidence by shippers who are opposing the advance in freight rates was concluded before the interstate commerce commission with the testimony of Gov. W. R. Stubbs of Kansas, who, in a characteristic manner, declared opposition to an increase in rates and his belief as a practical builder of railroads that valuations have been placed at too high a point.

"I'll put up a million-dollar bond," said the governor, "that I can construct a main line railroad in Kansas and an up-to-date line for $25,000 a mile and make 10 per cent. profit."

The lowest estimate of railroad building offered by the railroads more than doubled the governor's estimate. Governor Stubbs was the principal witness introduced by the shippers, who occupied only three days with their witnesses, while the railroads in the previous hearings presented many witnesses and consumed more weeks than the shippers have days.

MAGAZINE POSTAGE RAISED.

Periodicals Will Be Forced to Pay More to Government.

Washington.—President Taft and Postmaster General Hitchcock reached an agreement on the recommendations the President will make to congress regarding a change in the second class postage rates as affecting magazines and other periodicals.

Mr. Taft will recommend that the magazines be required to pay the present rate of 1 cent a pound on all reading matter, and a much higher rate to be determined later, on the advertising pages. Each magazine will be required to send a copy of its current issue to the Postoffice department each week or month, as the case may be. There the publication will be dissected. The reading matter and the advertising section will be separately weighed and the amount of postage computed by the number of magazines sent out.

Newspapers will not be affected. The average haul of the newspaper is but 300 miles, while the average haul of the magazine is 1,100 miles.

Mr. Hitchcock told the President that the plan of separating the reading and advertising matter in the magazines is entirely feasible, and he believed it to be the proper solution of the problem. The hauling of magazines in the mail has proved costly to the government, and both the President and Postmaster General believe it has entered largely into the deficit shown each year in the Postoffice department. The adoption of a new rate for the magazines, Mr. Hitchcock believes, will entirely wipe out the deficit and put the postal establishment on a self-sustaining basis.

President Taft is looking forward to a one-cent rate for letter postage that will yield a profit, and he hopes to recommend it before he leaves the white house.

The establishment of the proposed new rates as to magazines, the President believes, will do much to bring about the penny postage plan. At the same time as he thinks the magazines will be compelled to pay only their just share in the postal expense.

The President is determined to push his plan for placing second and third class postmasters under the civil service. He will make the recommendation to congress in his forthcoming message.

America Loans China $250,000,000.

Peking, China.—An official edict issued authorizes the proposed loan of $250,000,000 pounds sterling from the American group of financiers. The bond issue will be taken at 95. They will mature forty to forty-five years after issuance, and will bear 5 per cent interest. Of the loans $5,000,000 and possibly $10,000 will be devoted to industrial improvements in Manchuria. A large portion will be used in the extension of the planned currency reform. The guarantee are not yet determined.

Snow in Atlanta.

Atlanta.—For the first time since the weather bureau was established in this city snow fell during the month of October in Atlanta. The thermometer registered 38 degrees when the snow flurry came. According to records the earliest snowfall in this portion of the country was November 14, 1904.

Senator Bacon in Aeroplane.

Mourmelon, France.—Jacob M. Dickinson, American Secretary of War, made a short aeroplane flight at the military aeroplane here as a passenger with a French officer, Ensign Lafon. The Secretary, on reaching the earth again, expressed himself as delighted with his trip. M. Gobe took up Senator Bacon of Georgia and others of Secretary Dickinson's party. The American visitors then made a lengthy inspection of the extensive workshops, and witnessed several fine flights by Thomas.

Little Tuberculosis Among Farmers.

Washington.—Figures tending to show the relation between occupation and tuberculosis of the lungs, apparently indicating that agricultural pursuits are more favorable to health in this respect than other employments, were made public by the census bureau.

The statement issued says that among the men in the agricultural pursuits at the age period of 25 to 34 years, those who die from tuberculosis of the lungs formed 26.2 per cent.

HIS LIVELIHOOD AT STAKE

Certainly Candidate for Governor Could Not Expect to Get That Vote.

An incident in which former Governor Odell of New York figured as the victim was told by Col. James Hamilton Lewis at a recent banquet. "When Governor Odell was last running for office," said Colonel Lewis, "there had been a great deal of talk about Niagara Falls and the electrical power that could be conferred on all parts of New York. One day an old negro halted Mr. Odell and said:

"Mr. Odell, is yo' runnin' for governor, sah?"

"I am," answered the candidate.

"I guess yo' want my vote den," said the colored man.

"Well, I would like to have your vote, Zeb. I have known you for so many years."

"Well, I jist want to ask you a question, Mr. Odell, befo' I give mah vote to you. Are yo' for electric lights in dis town?"

"Well, Zeb, I am for all modern improvements," said Odell, with a slight flourish.

"Well, sah, I can't vote for you," said Zeb with firmness. "Yo' done forget dat I is a lamp lighter."

His Point of View.

"John, dear," queried the young wife, glancing up from the physical culture magazine she was perusing, "what is your idea of a perfect figure?"

"Well," replied her husband, "$100,000 may not be perfect, but it's near enough to satisfy a man of my simple tastes."

Planning a Desperate Revenge.

The haughty, imperious beauty handed him back his ring.

"Now that all is over between us," she said, "I suppose you will buy a revolver and put an end to your wretched existence?"

"Worse than that!" he hissed, being careful to introduce the necessary sibilant; "far worse—! I shall steal a revolver! And I shall shoot your measly little sore eyed poodle!"

A wild shriek burst from her lips. She fell upon her knees and— But he had gone.

Getting a Reputation.

There is a desk in the senate particularly convenient as a place from which to make speeches. It is next to the aisle and almost in the center of the chamber, and affords an opportunity for the speaker to make everybody hear.

At least a dozen senators, according to the Washington correspondent of the St. Louis Star, have borrowed this desk when they had special utterances to deliver to the senate. This led, not long ago, to a mild protest from its legitimate occupant.

"I am perfectly willing to give up my desk," said he, "but I am afraid people will think that the senate is talking all the time. I don't want to get the reputation of being a Yeuath's Companion."

One of the Best Rest Cures.

Is a good story.

To many women it is as good as a trip away from home.

When you are tired out and your nerves are on edge, try going off by yourself and losing yourself in some good story. You will, in nine cases out of ten, come back rested and invigorated.

One woman who has passed serenely through many years of hard work and worry that go with the managing of a house and bringing up of a large family of children, said that she considered it the duty of every busy housekeeper to read a certain amount of "trash," light fiction, for the rest and change to the mind that it would give.

Try it, you who lead a strenuous life, and who sometimes grow exceedingly weary of the same.

AFTER SUFFERING ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pains in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and advised an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. Emma Lase, 833 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.
